General Conditions and Sale Bye-Laws

- 1. All Pedigree Sheep to be sold in guineas.
- 2. Commission will be deducted at the rate of 5% on all pedigree sheep sold. An 'upset' price of 200gns is set, i.e. if no opening bid is received aforementioned, that lot will be passed out of the ring unsold.
- 3. Any animals in the Sale Premises which are sold by private treaty after the Auction are subject to the full commission on the price realised and all such transactions must be passed through the Auctioneers.
- 4. All sheep must be identified with back-stamp lot numbers.
- 5. Sheep will only be accepted into the market and penned for Sale if they are accompanied by an official ministry Certificate of Official MV Status which is in date has been correctly completed. This Certificate must be handed in when the animal/s arrive at the market.
- 6. No Sheep to be presented while suffering from any contagious disease.
- 7. All tags must comply with UK legislation and Society rules on identification. The vendor shall be responsible for the correctness of identity
- 8. Substitutes must be declared to the Society. Please notify the office by email (beltex.sheep@btconnect.com) or mobile message or text (07918 638197) no later than 5.00 on Thursday 28 November 2019.
- 9. Scrapie genotyping is voluntary. All sheep catalogued with scrapie genotype must have valid certificates (whether NSP or Private test).
- 10. All sheep entered for Society sales will be inspected by a panel of inspectors appointed by the Society, and a Veterinary Surgeon. The inspection decision will be final, and any animal will be identified by a neck tag market 'reject', or may be removed immediately from the market premises and forfeit entry fee.

Notice of a claim must be supported by a veterinary surgeons certificate or a slaughterhouse managers or other competent persons certificate confirming that the sheep was in lamb.

2. Female sheep described as correct

2.1. Vendors warranty

The vendor warrants that all female sheep described in the catalogue or at the time of sale as correct are sound in mouth and udder, that they are not lacking any of the 8 broad teeth and do no have any damaged or worn teeth or a defective udder. This warranty is a 5 day warranty.

2.2. Purchasers rights

If the purchaser proves a breach of warranty then, at the purchaser option, either the purchaser may exercise his rights under condition 7, or the vendor shall pay the purchaser as liquidated damages a sum equal to the amount in paragraph (b) of the Appendix. Notice of a claim must be supported by a veterinary surgeons certificate.

3. Female sheep proving barren

3.1. Vendors warranty

The vendor warrants than any female sheep sold as being in lamb is in lamb at the time of sale. This warranty is a 21 day warranty.

3.2. Purchasers rights

If the purchaser proves a breach of warranty he may exercise his rights under condition 7. Notice of a claim must be supported by a veterinary surgeons certificate.

4. Stock rams

4.1. Vendors warranty

The vendor warrants that any ram sold as a stock ram for 200gns (£210.00) or more is capable of natural and effective service. This warranty if a 3 month warranty, from the date of sale.

The animal shall be deemed incapable of natural and effective service if it fails to make at least five ewes pregnant by the end of the guarantee period.

The warranty is dependant on the ram being used under natural breeding conditions. Natural breeding condition is considered to be when a ram is run with ewes, cycling without artificial interference. Ewes, which have been 'sponged' and/or treated with hormones to induce or synchronise ovulation, shall not, for the purpose of the warranty, be in 'normal' condition. Natural breeding for the ram is considered to be when the ram serves the ewes naturally and the warranty does not cover AI usage.

4.2. Purchasers rights

The initial purchaser shall throughout the warranty period, give the ram full and sufficient opportunity to prove that he is capable of natural and effective service.

If the purchaser believes that the ram is not working naturally then he should forthwith advise the auctioneers in writing, who in turn shall notify the vendor. The purchaser shall forward a veterinary certificate to the auctioneers within 14 days of initial notification to lodge a claim.

The veterinary certificate must confirm that :-

- a) The rams incapacity or ineffectiveness is not the result of injury, accident, illness or usage for AI happening after the time of sale. Death from natural causes within the male warranty period voids any liability under the warranty.
- b) The Purchasers breeding females, to which the ram has been mated, are not responsible for the rams incapacity or ineffectiveness, and that they are in normal breeding condition.

The veterinary certificate will not be based on as semen sample collected by electro-ejaculation.

If the purchaser proves a breach of warranty then the purchaser may return the ram to the vendor who shall, at the purchasers option, either replace the ram with another ram of equal value which is capable of and effective at natural service, or refund the purchase price together with the cost of transport from the purchasers premises and the veterinary fees associated with proving infertility.

The vendor will not, under any circumstances be liable for indirect or consequential loss sustained by the purchaser.

Warranty Rights and Return of Stock:

The referee, who shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator, shall make such examination or trail of the animal and such inquiry of such persons as in his sole discretion he considers necessary or desirable for determining the dispute.
- 8.4. The decision of the referee on any matter referred to him, which shall include the question whether any disease is or is not, whether by reason of its temporary character or otherwise, such as to constitute a breach of warranty, and on whether any animal which is to be returned shall be returned to the premises of the vendor or of the auctioneers, shall be final and binding upon both vendor and purchaser provided that either the vendor or the purchaser so requests in writing within 14 days after the decision the referee shall within 21 days after receiving such a request put his decision into writing and send a copy to each of the vendor and purchaser.

8.5. The party against whom any decision is given shall pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the auctioneers in connection therewith, including the costs of any examination or inquiry and the fees of any person appointed by the auctioneer to give any decision or to make any examination, trial or inquiry.

9. Return of stock

- 9.1. Where a purchaser exercises his right under these condition to refuse to take delivery of any animal or to return it to the vendor he shall be entitled to the return of which part of the purchase money as he has paid (and need not pay any part of it which he has not paid) and to a refund of the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by him in obtaining any veterinary surgeons certificate or other persons certificate or opinion which he is required to furnish under these conditions in order to exercise his right.
- 9.2. Where a purchaser exercises his right to return an animal he shall do so at his own expense but the vendor shall pay to the purchaser the reasonable costs and charges of the transit of such animal to and from the purchasers premises and, in the case of an animal which has been on the purchasers premises for not less than a week, the reasonable cost of its keep.
- 9.3. Should the purchaser of any animal return it without being entitled by these conditions to so he shall pay to the auctioneers and vendor all costs, expenses and damages which they may respectively sustain or incur as a consequence.
- 9.4. If any animal is returned by the purchaser to the auctioneers premises and neither the purchaser nor the vendor removes the animal within 3 days after written notice from the auctioneers to do so, the auctioneers may cause the animal to be re-sold by public or private sale without warranty or reserve and without further notice to the vendor or purchaser.
- 9.5. The moneys produced by the re-sale, after deducting the costs and charges of and attending the re-sale, a reasonable sum for the feed and care of the animal pending re-sale any veterinary surgeons charges necessarily or reasonably incurred, shall be held by the auctioneers on behalf of the person who proves to be entitled to them, or may be paid into court under interpleader proceedings.
